Court Order Stops Power Strike in Pittsburgh Area

Judge Gives Injunction Just as Strike Begins; Company Also Is Restrained

Pittsburgh, Sept. 10 (AP)—A court order, stressing the public interest and welfare, brought a quick end today—at least temporarily—to a strike of electric power employees which had threatened paralysis of an 817-square mile area embracing 1,500,000 people. The order forbade any activities "which will imperil the lives, property, health and well being of the citizens."

Just as strikers were beginning to leave their posts to take up picket stations, Judge Walter P. Smart handed down the order directing the Independent Association of Employees of the Duquesne Light Co. to "reconsider and recall any order declaring a strike."

The order, directed against the company as well as the union, ordered officers and directors of the company to enter into bona fide negotiations with the Independent Association and to work out a sound and permanent labor policy which will prevent the recurrence of disputes between them and their workers. The company was told to "render adequate and continuous power."

Chinese Commercial News Thus Protests What It Calls Threats

Manila, Sept. 10 (AP)—The Chinese Commercial News appeared today with its local news page blank in protest against alleged threats to the paper.

The news said in a statement that Kuo Chin-Chi, acting secretary of the Manila Kuomintang (Chinese Government Party) ordered sanctions against the paper at a Chinese Guerrilla Veterans meeting. The news had published a story that Kuomintang officials accompanied Filipino military police on raids of two Chinese newspapers and schools last week.

The news said local news was withheld to emphasize the seriousness of threatening our paper and destroying freedom of faith-

Situation Over Nation Is Spotty

Los Angeles Faces Its Most Critical Time in History, While Some Have Plenty

Relief Forecast

Estimates on Improved Receipts of Cattle Are Varied

(By The Associated Press)
Butcher shops in most cities were running out of meat today, as O.P.A. ceilings went on again. Week-end buying sprees, in anticipation of short supplies, had left shops in most cities with little except poultry, smoked meats and cold cuts. Sharply reduced receipts of livestock at packing centers gave no hope for immediate relief.

Retail shops were closing for lack of business, and packing houses were laying off workers. After ceilings were removed, their cattle and hogs to market in unprecedented numbers. During the week immediately preceding re-imposition of ceilings on livestock, the Chicago market, the nation's largest, was glutted.

Livestock receipts over the nation now are reported running from eight to 50 per cent of normal.

These were typical reports in a nation-wide survey.

Los Angeles: City faces most critical meat shortage in history; Cincinnati: Most meat counters displaying only cold cuts and poultry; Oklahoma City: Supplies estimated only five per cent of normal; New Orleans: Butcher shops report stock "zero to fair"; Boston: Only three cars of beef reported arriving today compared with 70 last week.

Few Oases Reported

There were a few oases in the meatless desert.

Chattanooga: Butchers foresaw no immediate shortages and livestock receipts were normal; Portland, Ore.: Pork was scarce but beef was ample and lamb was plentiful; Spokane, Wash.: Packers reported that supplies were unchanged and receipts only slightly down from last week; Little Rock, Ark.: Livestock trading was "brisk" yesterday and expected to continue so for a week. Farmers were reported shipping their stock because pasture lands were burned up.

There were various estimates as to when supplies might be more plentiful. Salt Lake City butchers expected some relief in about two weeks when range cattle start arriving at slaughter houses. The dearth of feed was expected to result in lean stock, however.

Some Atlanta meat handlers predicted no improvement for a year's time. They said farmers had sold their stock to take advantage of high prices and now will have to wait for hogs and calves to fatten.

Washington State Agriculture Director Fred Martin, forecast "there will be plenty of beef this fall" after the 1946 stock goes to market.

Reece Will Speak Tonight on 'Real Issues'

Carroll Reece, of Tennessee, chairman of the Republican National Committee, tonight will deliver a talk described as "for all Americans" over the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Reece's talk, "The Real Issues," will be given from 11:15 to 11:30 Eastern Daylight Time and will be broadcast by WABC.

Reece is a former Representative from Tennessee and is considered one of the ablest thinkers in the United States today. He will draw in his talk tonight upon his thorough knowledge of present day affairs, a spokesman said.

Grain Is Held Up

Building Is Threatened By Walkout

Shortage of Materials May Affect Huge Projects in New York Area

Union Is Blamed

O'Dwyer Says Local 807 Is Responsible for Situation

New York, Sept. 10 (AP)—The prolonged strike of 25,000 A.F.L. truck drivers and a resultant threat of food shortages for New York city retailers today brought a wave of buying which stripped grocers' shelves of canned goods and other staples.

Food chains, hit hardest by the nine-day-old walkout, reported meat cases empty and little or no fresh vegetables on hand.

Pickets of the A.F.L. International Brotherhood of Teamsters were posted on major thoroughfares leading into the city, turning back trucks which tried to bring in anything except perishables, drugs and medical supplies—granted immunity from the shutdown.

Plant shutdowns, layoffs and interruption of work on vast building projects also were threatened.

Max A. Foley, president of the New York Building Congress, declared that work on hundreds of millions dollars worth of construction in New York would be halted within a week for lack of supplies if the strike continued.

Other building spokesmen estimated that construction would be at a standstill in a few days, adding that layoffs already run in the thousands.

As a result of the emergency created by both the trucking strike and the walkout of A.F.L. seamen, Mayor William O'Dwyer announced that 2,000 new patrolmen would be placed on duty next week. O'Dwyer said, however, there was

Communist Nominees File State Office Declinations

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—Communist party nominees for all state offices have filed declinations with the State Election Bureau and a Communist campaign committee statement says the action was taken because "a common electoral front with the Democrats is required to meet the reactionary Republican Dewey slate."

The Communist move yesterday followed declinations of the state nominees of the American Labor and Liberal parties. Both the A.L.P. and the Liberals have endorsed U. S. Senator James M. Republicans Take Maine to Start Congress Battle

Brewster and Hildreth Are Re-elected; Other States Are Busy With Tickets

(By The Associated Press)

Maine voters, re-electing a full slate of Republicans, sent the G.O.P. off to a head start today in the battle for control of the new Congress.

In preliminary skirmishing for the November tests in the other states, nominating conventions or primaries were on today in Connecticut, Colorado, Louisiana and Rhode Island.

Chester Bowles, former O.P.A. chief and stabilization director, made the political plunge in Connecticut, announcing his candidacy for the Democratic nomination as governor. His party holds its nominating convention next week. Republicans will name their candidate in convention today.

Leaders of both major parties searched the results of Maine's Monday balloting—first postwar general election—for straws showing the way the political winds are blowing.

Strikes Continue Local Inroads

Produce Haulers Report Business Proceeds on Normal Basis

The truck and shipping strikes which have paralyzed shipments in the metropolitan district continue to make inroads in this area.

The Ballantine Company which receives beer shipments daily from Newark had not received its daily supply at the usual hour today. The Ballantine manager said, however, that they had not been notified that shipments would not come through.

The Zwick and Schwartz trucking firm which hauls large quantities to and from the New York markets said business was proceeding as usual.

"We're going through with the daily load," an official said. "The produce is going through to New York on schedule. We have been flagged and stopped near the Holland tunnel a few times, but the trucks have been permitted to pass. A return load has come through daily."

The Zwick and Schwartz firm reported that Local 262 which controls the drivers going into the markets is not involved in the strike. Perishables are moving normally, they said, although trucks from other centers have been stopped at the tunnel and turned back.

Hillebrand and Dwyers, boat building companies already beginning to feel the pinch of lack of raw materials, reported the situation may be further aggravated if the strikes continue. Dwyers said they could not say exactly what effect the strike has had to date and attributed their difficulties to shortages of material which would exist, strike or no strike.

The Ertel Engineering Corporation said an emergency created by the strikes last week forced them to close a section of the plant for two days.

Scarcity of raw materials and the shipping tieup is creating a bad situation an Ertel official said. Particularly hard hit are the foreign shipments of the company.

The Ertel company is operating 56 hours a week at present but there is no definite indication such production can continue. An accumulation of strikes at key plants making parts climaxed by the

Shipowners Ask Board Reversal

President of Owners Says Two Additional Strikes May Result from Decision

Denies Inflation

Bryan Says $22.50 Raise Has No Sign of Inflation

By MAX HALL

Associated Press Labor Reporter
Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—Striking seamen A.F.L. snubbed a Wage Stabilization Board hearing today as owners of idle merchant fleets pleaded for the right to pay them more money.

J. B. Bryan, president of the Pacific American Shipowners Association, urged the board to reverse its ruling on seamen's wages which touched off a strike that has paralyzed all American ports.

The White House remained silent. Reporters asked Charles G. Ross, press secretary, whether President Truman "is sending any message over to the Wage Stabilization Board." He replied "no." He gave a similar response when asked if there was any word at the White House on the maritime strike.

Mr. Truman arranged a mid-afternoon conference with top army and navy advisors but Ross said "no, I think not" when asked if it had anything to do with the shipping strike. Invited to the conference were Secretaries Forrestal, Navy, and Patterson, war, and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, chief of staff, and Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, chief of naval operations.

Forrestal said the President yesterday said but later they had not talked about the strike.

Bryan told the Stabilization Board that if it holds to its present position "before we know it we're going to have two more strikes on our hands, possibly the marine firemen and the marine cooks and stewards."

No Union Men Present

As the board opened its hearing, no representatives of the striking A.F.L. seamen were on hand. Their leaders apparently were going through with their plan to remain away.

Bryan told the six board members that the raise of $22.50 a month which Pacific ship owners agreed to pay west coast able-bodied seaman and firemen is "not inflationary." The board ruled on August 23 that $17.50 was the basic wage for the present wage price policy.

Bryan said the seamen agreed to forego over 60 other demands. "In many cases," he said, "granting a single one of these demands would mean an increase of more than the $5 representing what the board turned down."

He said the $5 was "a small

Offensive Begins

Sino Government Strikes From Three Directions at Communists

Peiping, Sept. 10 (AP)—Government troops attacking from three directions advanced on the Chinese Communist stronghold of Kalgan today in a major offensive which neutral observers said may end China's last chance for a negotiated peace.

The civil war already had reached an all-out tempo in much of north China, military personnel here agreed. They predicted that the new drive toward the Red regional capital, 80 miles northwest of Peiping, would spread the fighting throughout north China.

Some forecast a Communist counter thrust at Nanking, national capital. Others said they regarded the attack on Kalgan—the Communists' model city—as equivalent to a "declaration of war," and predicted a formal Communist "declaration" in reply.

U. S. Subversive Elements Will Be Author's Subject

B'nai B'rith Will Present John Roy Carlson on Wednesday at 8:15 in M.J.M.

Those who attend John Roy Carlson's lecture Wednesday at 8:15 p. m. in the auditorium of the Myron J. Michael School will hear a first-hand account of present and existing subversive elements in America as gleaned by the author of "Under Cover," one of the best selling non-fiction books.

The lecture is being sponsored by B'nai B'rith Lodge, 131, of Kingston. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend free of charge or donation. While in the city, Mr. Carlson will be the guest of B'nai B'rith.

The background of experience acquired in the preparation and writing of "Under Cover" has made Mr. Carlson an outstanding authority on Wednesday night's subject.

The history of the book, which reached the sale now in excess of 700,000 copies, offers one of the most outstanding chapters in the publishing business. It had been turned down 27 times before E. P. Dutton and Company accepted it.

Story of Author's Life
How "Under Cover" came to be written is the story of Carlson's life. The son of well-to-do Armenian parents, he was born in a small seaport town in Greece named Alexandropolis after its founder Alexander the Great. Young Carlson had his first lesson in the strength and power of the United States during one of the perennial raids on the town by Turkish bandits. His father, the representative of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., hung an American flag from the balcony to protect his home. The bandits thinking it was the American consulate, respected the flag and did not molest the house.

When Carlson was 12, his father decided to come to America to live and to establish an importing firm. Upon his arrival here he wisely bought a home in one of the residential suburbs of New York and the boys, John Roy and his two brothers (now in the U. S. Army) grew up like regular American boys. So in addition to becoming citizens they rapidly became Americanized.

Graduated from high school at an early age, Carlson entered New York University and majored in journalism. He worked his way through college by writing for a string of small newspapers and after he graduated (because he wanted to really see and know America) went on a hitch-hiking trip all over the country.

When he returned from his trip the incident occurred that was to pattern Carlson's life. On Christmas Sunday in 1933 the Armenian Archbishop was murdered by Armenian Fascists. (This was the same year that Hitler came to power in Germany.) Young Carlson had known and loved the Bishop, and wanted to learn more about his death. He wanted to find out first hand (this is the keynote to the man) what led to the murder . . . why the very elements that had made Europe such a hell hole for minority groups were transferring to his America. So 24-year-old Carlson applied for and got a job on an Anglo-American newspaper. He was a good reporter . . . He had a nose for news and a burning desire to learn the truth.

His quest carried him into many strange places. It was while talking to an editor of Fortune Magazine that he related one of his recent adventures in Yorkville (the German section of New York). The editor was impressed and later offered Carlson the job of fact finding for a series of articles on Fascist Activities in America. The magazine was contemplating. They wanted complete material on the overall subversive picture. This meant attending meetings, etc.

Gleaned Important Material
This work opened new vistas to Carlson. He saw the pattern clearly—everything fell into place. And because he had found his real work he gave up his other job and went into this work on a full time basis working with the Friends of Democracy and the Council Against Intolerance. Much of the material he uncovered was pertinent and he voluntarily turned it over to the Department of Justice, Army Intelligence, other federal agencies and the Dies Committee.

Finally Carlson decided the time had come to write his book and

Saratoga Will Drop Its County Taxes

Ballston Spa, N. Y., Sept. 10 (P)—The Saratoga County Board of Supervisors has voted to eliminate virtually all county taxes for the fiscal year beginning Nov. 1 as a result of revenue received from a five percent tax on pari-mutuel betting at the Saratoga race track last month. The supervisors adopted the tax resolution yesterday.

The county collected $1,062,000 from the betting tax sufficient to meet a county budget for the next fiscal year of $750,000 and to meet payments of $120,000 due this year and $118,000 due next year on a county debt of $631,000.

turn the information over to the public . . . they (the American People) were the ones who should know the truth. So he wrote "Under Cover," the book which made history. Attempts (by interested persons) to suppress the book only increased its sales and the post-Senatorial investigation proposed, served only to boost sales higher and higher.

Since the advent of his best seller, John Roy Carlson has been busy gathering material for a second book, lecturing professionally . . . and at Army camps, hospitals, etc., under the auspices of Army Orientation . . . and touring for the U. S. Treasury Department, selling bonds.

Says the Tomato Blight Is Not a New Disease

The tomato blight, which has been the subject of much discussion—and cussing—during recent weeks is not a new and mysterious disease, according to Earl G. Brougham, Greene county agricultural agent. He is quoted as saying that, although termed a new disease in some sections, because of its first appearance in many years, "it is nothing less than the late blight that affects potatoes."

The blight is officially known as "phytophthora infestans." It not only frequently hits the potato crop, but gets into tomato patches about every eight or nine years, it was stated.

A recent issue of the Catskill Mail said that many home gardeners in Catskill and other parts of Greene county had reported being hit by the blight within the past week, just at the height of production. As in other areas, reports, it was stated, are that the blight is causing untold havoc, with an otherwise plentiful crop of commercial and home garden tomatoes doomed to produce one of the lowest yields in years.

Long Strike Ends

Elizabeth, N. J., Sept. 9 (P)—Maintenance crews entered the Phelps-Dodge Copper Products Corporation plant today, ending the eight-month strike by Local 441, United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers (C.I.O.) Union spokesmen said most of the 2,000 workers who had been on strike since January were expected to return to their posts after the plant is prepared for full-scale operation later in the week. Many employees had found work elsewhere. The union failed to win a union shop, one of its major demands.

Shortages Slash Auto Production, R. M. Sutliff Says

New cars are about as far away from most Americans right now as they were when the war came to an end, Roy M. Sutliff, local Chevrolet dealer, said today as he discussed the latest automobile production figures.

"Since the first of the year," he said, "various shortages have caused the industry a production loss of some 2,000,000 cars. That is instead of 3,000,000 automobiles rolling off the assembly lines since January 1, as had been expected, the total to date is only a little more than 1,000,000. And under the most favorable circumstances, the end of the year will find the manufacturers at least 1,500,000 cars behind their original calculations."

"Those figures mean that motorists will have to adjust themselves to a much longer waiting period for new cars than they had expected. There are still other factors to which car owners must give serious attention. For example, the more ominous, which means batteries will be in much shorter supply. And there are continuing shortages in other essential parts. To sum it all up, every person who owns a car today will be well advised if he gives the most serious attention to the maintenance of the car he now owns," concluded Mr. Sutliff.

Official Probe Discloses Stone Ridge Fire Co. Not Called

The investigation of the mysterious fire that completely destroyed a barn full of hay, 10,000 square feet of lumber, a chicken house and granary on the Angelo Ricci property in Marbletown last Tuesday has proved inconclusive, the sheriff's office said today.

The fire of undetermined origin started about 2:30 a. m. last Tuesday morning and completely leveled the barn.

The investigation disclosed that the Stone Ridge fire department had not been summoned as was previously reported. The original information furnished the sheriff's office by Mrs. Angelo Ricci was that the Stone Ridge department had been called but did not respond.

Officials of the Stone Ridge department in a letter today declared that they were not called. This assertion is corroborated by the official investigation.

The sheriff's office indicated that the inquiry is still open.

Kingston Daily Freeman

Kingston, New York.

Dear Sir:

In reply to the unfavorable

write-up given in part to the Stone

Ridge Fire Company in the Kingston Daily Freeman of September

5, I would like to make the following statement:

The Stone Ridge Fire Company

is very proud of its promptness in answering calls for assistance and are truly sorry for the loss suffered by Mr. Angelo Ricci. But, we must very emphatically deny receiving a call for aid from him.

At no time, A.M. or P.M., on Tuesday, September 3, 1946, did

the Stone Ridge Fire Company

receive any call from Mr. Angelo

Ricci. Also, why Mr. Angelo Ricci called the Stone Ridge Fire Company is beyond our understanding as the Ricci residence is far outside our allotted protection zone.

This letter can be used for publication as I would like to repeat that the Stone Ridge Fire Company has never failed to respond to a call for assistance unless received from territory not under its protection at which time the call is transferred to central station for proper attention.

Very truly yours,

CHESTER KROM,

Chief

health director, Dr. I. Hope Alexander, petitioned for the injunction as business and industry was beginning to curtail operations in preparation for an emergency. Some 1,200 street cars left their routes to help save power.

Today, all was returning to normal, with street car service resuming in the early morning hours.

The court's order came dramatically at the hour the strike officially got under way—12:01 a. m., to enforce union demands for a master contract covering nine operating companies associated with Duquesne, and a 20 per cent wage increase.

President George L. Mueller of the union said early this morning he had postponed the strike on his own initiative in accordance with the court order, which directs the union and company representatives to a hearing Friday. The postponement, he said, was "until sometime after Friday." Members of a strike committee to whom the postponement was referred, said approval was a formality.

O'Connor Boy Hurt In Cycle-Auto Crash

Frank O'Connor, 9, of 326 Albany avenue, was injured, but not seriously, at 8:40 o'clock last night when the bicycle he was riding was in collision with an auto driven by Harry A. Secreto of 384 First avenue according to a police report.

The boy was removed to the Benedictine Hospital in one of the police radio cars by Officers Kenneth Hyatt and Clarence Stickle. After receiving treatment he was taken to his home.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

Worries, Airborne
Seattle, Sept. 10 (AP)—County Treasurer Carroll Carter, used to worry about dents in the car fenders but now he worries about scars on the family airplane.

When Carter met his wife and two teen-age daughters on their return from a Florida flight he found several patches on his plane. Daughters Mary and Sue explained they had an argument with a gas pump in Idaho—and an encounter with a bull in Florida.

Firewatchers
Mountain Lake, Minn., Sept. 10 (AP)—So many mountain lake residents enjoy "a good fire" that firemen protested to the village council that on-lookers interfered with their work.

The council ruled spectators must remain at least one block from the scene of a fire, or pay fines.

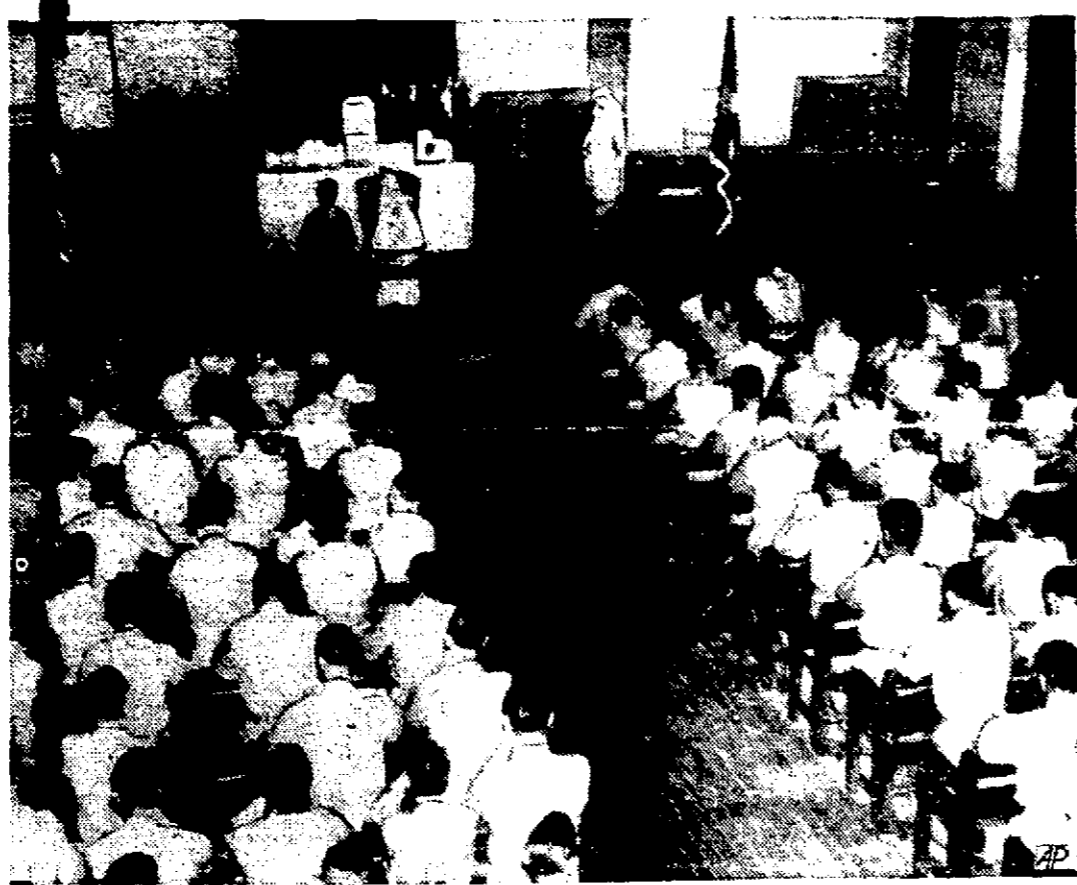

New Low-Priced Cars
Peoria, Ill., Sept. 10 (AP)—Marshall Pressley, 87, never would have anything to do with automobiles, but lately he has been handicapped by an injured leg.

So he built his own 1946 model—a three-wheeled affair made of junk yard scrap, iron bed rails, metal fence posts and a one and one-half horse power gasoline engine.

He says he's been offered $200 for the contraption.

Forward and Back
When the elephant lies down it extends the hind legs backward and the front legs forward—so all other large quadrupeds bring the hind legs forward to lie down.

$100,000 Connecticut Fire Destroys Factory

East Port Chester, Conn., Sept. 10 (AP)—A three-alarm fire of undetermined origin partially destroyed a two-story stone block factory building last night causing damages tentatively estimated by Fire Chief Stuart M. Potter at $100,000.

Three companies of Greenwich fire fighters assisted the local fire department in extinguishing the blaze, which brought slight injury to six firemen, none of whom needed hospitalization.

The fire was discovered at 7:30 p. m. by the janitor of a Port Chester, N. Y., office building and, although Port Chester firemen did not respond to the alarm, they set up flood lights on their side of a small river which flows between the two towns. The last company returned to quarters at 11:15 p. m.

Three filled oil tanks and three loaded with gasoline were within 50 feet of the burning building but they were protected throughout the blaze. Fourteen loaded gasoline trucks had been housed in a garage under the hottest portion of the fire but they were driven to safety without incident.

The building is occupied by the Fair-Chester Corporation, the Radio Music Corporation and the Prat-Daniel Corporation.

Moran Night School

Beginning this evening, night sessions of the Moran School of Business, corner Fair and Main streets, will be conducted on Tuesday and Thursday throughout the term. School is in session from 7 to 9 o'clock. The school office will open at 6:30. These courses range from short intensive units in typewriting, bookkeeping, clerical practice, social security and income tax procedure, all the way to complete courses in shorthand, secretarial, accounting, and related branches. There are no entrance examinations.

Legion Post 1219 To Meet Thursday

Officers Will Be Nominated for Ensuing Year

Rosendale, Sept. 10—Nomination of officers for 1947 will take place at the meeting of Rosendale-Tillon, Post, 1219, American Legion Thursday at 8:30 p. m. in the post rooms on Main street.

It is requested by George W. Nichols, adjutant, that all members of the post attend the session on Thursday. Officers nominated at this meeting will be voted on by ballot at the September 26 meeting, under the post by-laws.

At the September 12 meeting other important business will be in final revision of by-laws, a report of the dance committee and a definite plan made to read the 1947 membership quota of 75 by October 20. All applications for membership should be turned in at Thursday's meeting. Adjutant Nichols advises.

The post welcomes to membership all G. I.'s, Waves, Wacs, or Spars from this area.

Manila Closes Down To Prepare for Typhoon

Manila, Sept. 10 (AP)—Many Manila government offices and business houses and the American school closed early today to permit employees and pupils to prepare for a typhoon, scheduled to pass 15 miles north of the city tonight.

The typhoon was reported not as severe as the one which devastated northern Luzon in mid-July but on its present track would come closer to Manila than any typhoon in several years.

Reconnaissance planes said the typhoon winds reached 105 miles an hour and that winds of at least 70 miles an hour would strike Manila.

Dairymen Have Until Friday to Cast Votes

New York, Sept. 10 (AP)—Dr. C. J. Blanford, administrator of the New York metropolitan milk marketing areas has announced that dairymen in the New York milkshed have until midnight Friday to vote on a proposed amendment to New York's federal and state milk marketing orders.

Blanford said last night the chief proposal in the amendment was for revision of the pricing formulas so that varying market prices for milk and other dairy products would be reflected in the income of producers.

All of the 47,582 producers who supplied the New York market in June are eligible to vote, either individually or through qualified cooperative association, said Blanford, who also is referendum agent.

Approval of the amendment by at least two-thirds of the producers is required.

Blanford said a total of 1,600 independent dairymen were eligible to cast individual ballots, as were 1,574 members of 14 cooperative associations with 29,808 members have chosen to cast collective ballots.

The New York state commissioner of agriculture and markets has announced he would base his findings with respect to an amendment to the joint and concurrent state order upon the result of the vote by New York state producers in the referendum on the federal order.

Held for Abandonment When He Reports to Police

New York, Sept. 10 (AP)—The father who abandoned three small children on the steps of a Brooklyn orphanage Saturday kept his word and went to police to explain his action.

Bernardo Rosado, 37, an unemployed Puerto Rican sailor, said yesterday that the children's mother had left him and that he had tried unsuccessfully to care for them while seeking work.

When the shipping strike broke, Rosado saw no hope of an immediate job so he decided to take the children—Milagros and Socorro, four-year-old twins, and Marie Elaine, three—to the orphanage while he looked for a job.

Rosado pinned a note to the dress of one child saying he would go to police within 48 hours. When he appeared today he said he still had not found work.

He was booked on a charge of abandonment.

W. H. Moran Dies

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—William H. Moran, 82, retired former chief of the United States Secret Service, died last night at his home here. Moran retired in 1937 after 34 years in the service. At that time he went to Hollywood and worked as a technical adviser on crime movies. He is survived by two sons, Paul C. Moran, Mr. Vernon, N. Y., and Robert H. Moran, and a daughter, Miss Aileen Moran, both of Washington.

Chemical Society Announces About Better Motor Oil

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter

Chicago, Sept. 10 (AP)—New motor oils that seem to violate the laws of nature by getting thinner as they grow colder, and that thicken when they get hot, were announced by the American Chemical Society today.

The oils were described by Doctors H. C. Evans and D. W. Young, of Stanco Distributors, Inc., New York city. They are an offshoot of the miracles of synthetic rubbers and new plastics of the war.

The oils owe their peculiar performance in heat and cold to addition of some rubber-like materials, made synthetically. These rubbery particles are very large-size molecules. The rubbery stuff is made from either mineral oils, or coal or a number of farm products.

Evans and Young declared that the oils made starting easier. They said oil consumption was low because of the thickening on heating affording a better oil seal around motor piston rings.

Many other wartime advances in petroleum were described as about to yield greatly improved peacetime gasoline and motor oils. One of these uses tannings, the leather-tanning materials obtained from wood, bark, leaves, roots and nuts. It was described by John Hoppel and S. P. Cauley of the Socony-Vacuum Oil Company's technical service division, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Tanning, used as a catalyst, removes the sulphur from gasoline, the sulphur not only lowers gasoline quality but causes it to stink. Sulphur always of gasoline, a line problem and there have been many methods of removing the stuff.

Dr. Stewart S. Kurtz, Jr., of the Sun Oil Company, Norwood, Pa., credited an Ohio State University pure science research with laying the basis for some of the war's striking petroleum achievements. This Ohio work started eight years ago and consisted merely in the humdrum job of synthesizing pure hydrocarbons, the building blocks of gasoline, and finding out precisely how each one burned.

Prof. Cecil E. Boord, who directed this work, said that to date 153 of these hydrocarbons have been prepared.

Embassy Watchman Gets 8 Years in Yugoslavia

Belgrade, Sept. 10 (AP)—William Wedge, night watchman in the U. S. Embassy, was sentenced by a Yugoslav court today to eight years imprisonment and ordered to pay approximately $8,000 in indemnities as the result of a May jump accident in which a Yugoslav officer was killed and another injured.

Wedge, who is 22 and comes from Newton, Mass., has the right to appeal to the Yugoslav Supreme Court within 15 days.

Local Taxes Will Be Affected, Tallamy Says

Alexandria Bay, N. Y., Sept. 10 (P)—A slash in local taxes against real estate "to the tune of $80,000" during the next five years will result from New York State's assumption of highway right-of-way procurement, B. D. Tallamy, deputy superintendent of the State Department of Public Works predicted today.

In an address prepared for a meeting of the New York State Association of County Highway Superintendents, Tallamy reported that local savings on highway right-of-way costs already had totaled $3,000,000.

He said more than 4,100 parcels of land required for highway construction had been procured or processed by the Department's Bureau of Rights of Way and Claims.

Until recently, he added, such costs were borne by the county and the individual taxpayers.

The costs were transferred to the state level under legislation enacted two years ago.

Tallamy said that the county postwar construction program now totals more than $62,000,000, chiefly in highways, bridges, drainage and sewer lines.

Negotiations to Open

Washington, Sept. 10 (P)—John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers (A.F.L.) president, and coal mine owners will open negotiations tomorrow looking toward return of the mines to private operation.

Bibby Says Area Sent $19,372 in Gifts to RussiansReport of U. S. Delegation Is Made; Dr. Sockman Will Give Story of Assistance

A first-hand report of the uses and distribution of American relief supplies reveals that Soviet authorities, organizations and individuals are deeply appreciative of relief assistance sent by the Kingston Committee for Russian Relief, and similar committees throughout the nation, it was announced today by Dr. Henry L. Bibby, chairman of the local Russian Relief committee. The report, received by the Kingston Committee today, was prepared by a delegation of seven eminent Americans active in behalf of the American Society for Russian Relief, Inc., upon the delegation's return to New York last week after a four-week, 5,000 mile, unrestricted tour of the Soviet Union.

Members of the delegation, which went to the Soviet Union upon the invitation of the Soviet government and the Soviet Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, were: Peter Grimm, president of the chamber of commerce of the State of New York, and treasurer of Russian Relief; the Rev. Dr. Ralph Sockman, Methodist minister of Christ Church in New York city and chairman of the National Interfaith Committee for Russian Relief; the Rev. Dr. Louis D. Newton, president of the Southern Baptist Convention; Dr. Edward Young, Boston surgeon, and chairman of the executive committee of the Cabot Memorial Fund; Louis Levine, member of the executive board of the World Jewish Congress, and national chairman of the Jewish Council for Russian Relief; Mrs. LaFell Dickinson, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, whose 3,000,000 members have cooperated in many Russian Relief campaigns; and Fred Myers, executive director of the relief agency.

The delegation, said Dr. Bibby, covered cities as widely separated as Leningrad, Moscow, Minsk, Stalingrad and Tbilisi, the capital of the Georgian republic. Throughout the extensive tour, the delegation reported, the Russians unreservedly expressed their deep gratitude and asked that their heartfelt thanks be given to Russian Relief committees in all American cities.

During its three years of existence, the Kingston Committee for Russian Relief contributed $19,372.70 in estimated gifts in kind to be shipped to Soviet Union. More than $73,000,000 worth of Russian Relief supplies, comprised mainly of medical and surgical equipment, clothing, blankets, books and household kits, has been shipped to the Soviet Union by the national organization since the agency's inception in September, 1941.

Covers Many Aspects

The delegation's report covers not only observation of the use of relief supplies, but many aspects of Soviet life of interest to Russian Relief volunteers and contributors. The group travelled on an itinerary of its own choice in a private plane supplied by the Soviet government.

"By its own report," Dr. Bibby said, "the delegation was free to travel where it wished, and was not once denied a request for information."

Members of the delegation took photographs throughout the tour and returned to the United States with several hundred feet of motion picture film.

Dr. Newton and Dr. Sockman reported "unhindered freedom of religion" in the U.S.S.R., and told of churches filled to capacity in the cities they visited.

"There is a much greater religious interest in the Soviet Union," Dr. Sockman concluded from his observations, "than many of us have been led to believe."

At the First Baptist Church in Moscow, and in several other churches, Dr. Newton preached to overflow congregations.

"The Russian people," Dr. Newton declared in his report to the local committee, "don't want war and they are not talking war. The people everywhere we went talked of peace and the only country they are concerned about is America and the only people they talk about are Americans."

Discussing Soviet medicine, Dr. Young said he found the calibre of Soviet medicine and surgery high, but that some of the equipment, according to American standards, would be termed "obsolete."

Both Mrs. Dickinson and Dr. Young emphasized the excellence of child care in the U.S.S.R. "They are ahead of us," Dr. Young reported, "in that they are concerned with the care and study of the normal child."

Message for Women

Russian women, said Mrs. Dickinson in her report were delighted to see her. She said that practically every woman she met asked her to bring back a message to the women of America.

"They would say, 'Tell American women we don't want war. Tell them we want to be friendly with them,'" Mrs. Dickinson declared.

The reply given to the Russian women by America's leading club-woman was that, in her lifetime, men have brought us into three wars, after which she would ask, "Don't you think it's time the women took hold and ran things?"

Louis Levine told of discussing Jewish affairs with Soviet Jewish leaders, who were unanimous in their opinion that the doors of Palestine should be opened to 100,000 displaced Jews.

"There is no trace of anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union," Levine reported.

Fred Myers, executive director of the American Society for Russian Relief, in the report described the scenes of devastation witnessed by the group. In Minsk, second only to Stalingrad as the worst scene of destruction visited by the delegation, the Russians have not yet been able to start reconstruction. Demolition of the walls or ruined buildings and carting away of rubble, bricks and debris is as far as Minsk was able to get, according to Myers. He said that in cities like Stalingrad, where the Nazi armies did their worst damage, housing conditions can be described only by the word, "terrible."

"The most obvious thing to an American walking around a Russian town, aside from the destruction," Myers pointed out, "is the lack of good clothing of the inhabitants. Those persons who are now wearing clothing sent by American relief agencies can be identified easily."

Mr. Grimm, as chairman of the delegation, reported to Dr. Bibby that, although there was widespread need, Soviet authorities agreed that it was appropriate and proper for the war relief activities of Russian Relief to cease by December 31, 1946.

To this end, said Dr. Bibby, the Kingston Committee for Russian Relief has ceased its active campaigning, although contributions are still being sent to the national office of the American Society for Russian Relief, 5 Cedar street, New York, N. Y.

Dr. Bibby said no attempt was given to offer a detailed report, since Dr. Ralph Sockman who is to speak at St. James Church, September 19, will treat of the subject in his address.

Republicans Work On Farm Vote for Dewey and IvesRural Citizens' Committee Is Announced; Will Open Headquarters in Albany

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 10 (P)—Republicans moved today to bring out a heavy farm vote for Governor Dewey and Irving M. Ives, G.O.P. nominee for the U. S. Senate, at the November 5 election.

Formation of a "Rural Citizens' for Dewey and Ives" group was announced last night by Joseph W. Robson of Hall in Onondago county.

Robson, state chairman of the organization's executive committee, said his group would register with the Secretary of State's office within a week and open Albany headquarters within 10 days.

The chairman said the organization came about chiefly because in the last gubernatorial election, in 1942, more than 800,000 qualified rural voters failed to "take advantage of their citizenship."

The G.O.P. traditionally depends upon a large upstate rural vote to offset the normally large Democratic margin in New York city.

Robson reported that a "real campaign" would be put on for the reelection of Dewey and the election of Ives. He said his unit would be an auxiliary to the Republican State Organization, co-operating with county chairmen, township chairmen and committees in rural election districts. He said the program would be financed by volunteer contributions.

Robson asserted the move was "non-political to the extent that we would be glad to receive Democrats in the organization."

Other executive committee members listed by Robson: William H. Stimming, Newark Valley; John Stone, Watertown; Harold Simonson, Glen Head, L. I.; Harold Creal, Homer; Andrew Danish, Troy; Dr. Ralph Knight, Little Valley; Dr. E. S. Markham, Constableville; Albert Ellinwood, Whitesboro, and John Hall, Lockport.

Redeployment

(By The Associated Press)

More than 1,300 service personnel and 321 war brides and children are due to debark today from three ships at New York and San Francisco.

Ships arriving:

Woodstock Man Is Held on Assault Charge for Jury

Justin Wright Allegedly Slashed Wife With Knife; Released From Jail Late

Justin Wright, 35, of Woodstock is in the county jail awaiting a jury trial on a charge of first degree assault alleged to have been committed in Woodstock on Sunday.

Wright was arrested by Special Deputy Louis Wilson of Woodstock after allegedly slashing his estranged wife in the breast with a pen knife.

Arraigned before Justice Fitzsimmons in Woodstock, Wright waived examination and was remanded to the county jail to await grand jury action.

According to the sheriff's report, Wright had been released from the county jail just a short while ago after serving time on a charge of third degree assault. His sentence was modified and he was released at the time with the understanding that in the future he would not molest his wife.

Wright is alleged to have gone to his wife's home Sunday night and an argument ensued during which he allegedly slashed his wife in the breast with a pocket knife.

Deputies from the sheriff's office were called to the home but Wright succeeded in eluding them in the early part of the night. Louis Wilson was then placed on guard at the Wright home and nabbed Wright when the latter returned in the early morning. He placed Wright under arrest and brought him to the county jail.

said: "I anticipate that the O.P.A. will be blamed for what would be a natural development of distribution."

The Kingston branch of Armour Company described the situation as "very bad" and the local office at a complete standstill. An Armour spokesman said the company did not have a single pound of beef, veal or lamb in stock. Shipments from the west are at a standstill.

Most wholesalers said there was a plentiful supply of poultry for weeks to come, but as far as meat was concerned they said it was "anybody's guess" as to when the next shipment would arrive.

Truce Team at Kalgan
Peiping, Sept. 10 (AP)—Executive headquarters reported today that survivors of Truce Team No. 11, reported bombed and strafed by two Chinese government planes August 31, had reached Kalgan, Communist military base in Chahar province. Two transport planes, in charge of Lt. Col. Robert S. Michael, Smithfield, Ky., were dispatched immediately to bring the survivors here. Headquarters still had no details of the reported attack near Weichang in western Jehol. Three Americans were reported wounded, one seriously, and four Communists killed. The team was headed by Col. J. H. Rustenmeyer, Leavenworth, Kas.

Ship Owners Ask Right to Pay More

fraction of one per cent of the total labor costs.

As the hearing opened the resumption of American shipping was at stake.

The board was gravely aware that America's merchant fleet lay motionless as the members for a second look at their ruling.

The resumption of ocean shipping is at stake.

So, too, perhaps, is the future of the board itself and the whole government wage-price policy laid down last February 14.

Board's Dilemma
Here is the board's dilemma: If it sticks to its August 23 ruling that able-bodied seamen should get no more than $17.50 a month as a wage increase, the strike might go on and on with dire results.

If it reverses its position it would be doing something which a majority of its members have said "would seriously weaken the whole stabilization program."

The White House, the Labor Department, the Maritime Commission, the Army, Navy and other agencies stood by. There were conferences, but no definite plan of government action emerged.

One thing that could make the task easier for the Wage Stabilization Board is "new evidence."

Government officials close to the situation take the view that if important new facts were presented, the board might be able to reverse its ruling without wrecking its prestige or revamping the whole policy of wage and price control.

One obstacle to the "new evidence" solution, however, is that A.F.L. leaders didn't seem anxious to provide any.

Harry Lundberg, boss of the A.F.L.'s west coast sailors, refused to attend the hearing because he said all the union's arguments already have been made. John Hawk, leader of A.F.L. seafarers at Atlantic and Gulf ports, also announced that he had been instructed not to appear.

Spokesmen Are on Hand
Spokesmen for the ship operators, however, were on hand to argue for approval of the higher A.F.L. wage increases.

They take the position that the higher pay rates were agreed upon during collective bargaining in return for a union offer to drop numerous other demands. These, they say, would have amounted to far more money had each been granted.

Board approval of the new pay scales would mean for most operators that they could pay the additional money without loss to themselves. They would simply pass on the extra cost to the government, which owns most of the ships.

In the case of privately-owned vessels, the owners would be entitled to ask for higher shipping rates to make up the difference.

But if the board should change its position and approve more money for the A.F.L. sailors, what about the C.I.O. sailors?

One important official, who asked not to be named, said that in such a case, the government probably would see to it that C.I.O. seamen got higher increases, too. (This prospect is the reason C.I.O. maritime unions are supporting the A.F.L. strike.)

Last June, the C.I.O.'s able-bodied seamen won a raise of $17.50 a month. The Stabilization Board okayed it. Later, west coast ship operators agreed to raise A.F.L. seamen $22.50 and east coast operators agreed to raise A.F.L. seamen $22.50. The board disapproved these, with the public and industry members ruled that $17.50 was the limit under the present wage-price policy.

Truck Strike Cleans Stores

no plans to assign them either as truck guards or drivers.

Highlights of Strike
These were some of the highlights of yesterday's developments:

The Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company announced it would close all of the 500 A & P stores in the New York area at the end of Saturday's business "there will not be enough food in our stores to continue operating."

The Safeway Food stores also announced it would close at least 240 of its stores Saturday night.

The National Sugar Refining Company suspended operations at its Long Island City plant. The firm said it had a few days supply of raw sugar on hand but was not processing it because no deliveries could be made.

Milk supplies, however, were reported "nearly normal" by E. O. Blather, secretary of the Milk Dealers' Association of Metropolitan New York, Inc.

Cigarettes Rationed
Cigarettes were being rationed, candy production declined 10 per cent, major bakeries were down to a week's sugar supply, 25 soft drink bottling plants closed.

Despite the announcements by A. & P. and Safeway, and by the New York Food Merchants Association that independent stores also were running short, O'Dwyer said the food supply in the city was normal.

He placed blame for the general situation on the union, Local 807, A.F.L. International Brotherhood of Teamsters, declaring "the trucks would roll in an hour" if the union would negotiate with motor carriers.

O'Dwyer said he personally guaranteed the city's food supply despite the fact the union rejected his compromise settlement plan Sunday.

The plan was based on an 18 1/2 cents hourly wage boost. The union seeks a 30 percent increase and the operators have offered a $3 weekly raise.

Republicans Take Maine to Start Congress Battle

House members of his party, called the outcome "most gratifying as indicating a continuance of the Republican trend."

Democrats noted, however, that their candidates showed greater strength on a percentage basis in some races than they did two years ago. For instance, Gov. Horace Hildreth, Republican, topped Democrat F. Davis Clark by 100,592 to 57,503 in incomplete returns whereas in 1944 Hildreth piled up a margin of 131,843 to 55,783 over Democrat J. Paul Julien.

Becomes Third Candidate
Bowles became the third candidate bidding for the Democratic nomination as governor of Connecticut. Already in the race were Lt. Gov. Wilbert Snow and Thomas C. Hart, Republican.

Five candidates are seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination. Gov. Raymond Baldwin was unopposed for that party's nomination to the Senate as successor to retiring Senator Thomas C. Hart, Republican.

In other states where ticket-picking is underway: Rhode Island—Interest centers on contest for seat of Senator Peter G. Gerry, Democrat, who decided against seeking re-election. Republicans name candidate in convention today with advance speculation centering on W. Gurnee Dyer, former serviceman. Democrats make their choice tomorrow with a contest in prospect between U. S. Solicitor General J. Howard McGrath and Superior Court Judge Robert E. Quinn, both former governors.

Louisiana—Contests on for six nominations—equivalent to election—for Congress. Opponents of Rep. E. Leonard Allen in the Eighth District include Dr. George S. Long, brother of the late Huey Long, and Henry E. Harland.

Colorado—Both Republicans and Democrats holding primaries. The state's four house members, all Republicans, are unopposed for re-nomination.

Stassen Sees G.O.P. Victory in Connecticut
Hartford, Conn., Sept. 10 (AP)—Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, keynoting the Republican state convention here last night, asserted that "the failure of the Democratic national administration in the responsibility of its postwar leadership has made it easier for the Republicans to win" in the coming state and congressional elections.

Stassen, widely discussed as a possible Republican presidential candidate in 1948, devoted much of his address to the international picture. He said there has been a "sad deterioration" since the United Nations was founded in San Francisco, a meeting he attended as a U. S. delegate. "It is clear that the unyielding and intransigence of Russia has been a major cause," he said, "but it is equally clear that our administration has not been blameless."

Termining Connecticut one of "the crucial areas" and the coming election campaign as "of major

Bowles Announces He'll Run for Office

Two Will Oppose Him for State Nomination

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 10 (AP)—Ending several weeks of speculation, Chester Bowles, former national O.P.A. chief and economic stabilizer, today announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor of Connecticut.

Bowles, stating that his decision "has not been easy," declared, "I'm deeply convinced that the election this fall will mark a turning point in our history."

"As I see it," he said, "the vote of our citizens in November—both here in Connecticut and throughout the nation—will declare whether we are to move ahead to ever greater heights of prosperity for all of our people, to a future free from want and free from fear—or whether we are to repeat the same old dreary cycle of inflationary booms followed by economic heartbreak and depression."

The Democratic state convention will be held next Monday and Tuesday at Hartford.

Good Taste Today

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

MATTER OF SENTIMENT

The following question cannot be answered definitely because so much depends upon sentiment and situation: "Have I been wrong in not returning an engagement ring to the family of the man to whom I was engaged? He was killed in action. It never occurred to me that it was not mine to keep under such circumstances. I have been wearing it on my left finger as before. Someone lately was shocked that I hadn't returned it."

If it was a ring that he bought for you, it is yours to keep of course. Even if it was the stone of his mother's engagement ring, reset for you, and you always will treasure the ring, there is no reason why you should send it back—unless, perhaps, there is an unmarried sister whose sentiment for her mother's ring is also very real. In this case, you might be more comfortable if you asked if she would like to have it back. On the other hand, if you now are marrying someone else, I think its return would be expected.

Are Two Announcements Proper?

Dear Mrs. Post: I received today from a foreign-born friend who was married recently a double card engraved with his name on the left side and her name on the right. Her name was engraved "Mary Adams Doe," the Adams being her maiden name. We are puzzled by this form and wondered whether it is continental.

Answer: Yes, double announcements are a European custom.

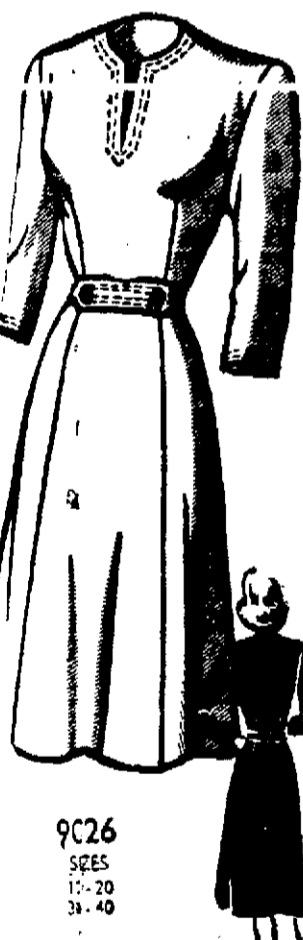

"Dove" Dinner

Dear Mrs. Post: What is a "dove" dinner? We never had heard the expression until my daughter was invited to such a dinner, being given after the wedding rehearsal by the bride-to-be's aunt.

Answer: It means that no men will be present.

How early are wedding invitations mailed? The answer is found in Mrs. Post's leaflet, "Wedding Invitations And Announcements," obtainable for a 3-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to her in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York, 19, N. Y. (Released by The Bull Syndicate.)

Rosalind Schebilski, Ralph A. Gardner Married on Sunday

Miss Rosalind Frances Schebilski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schebilski of 496 Washington avenue, was united in marriage Sunday afternoon to Ralph Arthur Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gardner, 25 Murphy street, in the First Dutch Reformed Church. The wedding took place at 2 p. m. with the Rev. Arthur E. Oudemool, pastor officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Beth Sherman, soloist, sang, "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. She was accompanied by Mrs. Raymond H. Rignall, organist, who also played traditional wedding music. The altar was decorated with gladioli and candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white satin gown with overskirt of old English lace. The bodice was designed with off-shoulder neckline caught at the front with a cluster of satin mock orange blossoms, a yoke of Old English lace and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil was edged with lace and caught to a high crown of Spanish lace, hand tufted and trimmed with tiny pearl orange blossoms.

Her sister, Miss Mary Schebilski as maid of honor, wore a blue gown made with Spanish lace bodice, sweetheart neckline edged with ruffles of lace, long sleeves and bouffant net skirt. She carried a pink gladioli bound with a pink bow. Bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Reis and Miss Leonetta Mae Richter. Miss Reis wore an aqua nixon gown made with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and full skirt. She carried a bouquet of fuchsia gladioli marked with yellow, blue delphinium bound with yellow bow. Miss Richter's gown of pastel pink taffeta was styled with sweetheart neckline marked with a shirring of net and skirt trimmed with shirred net ruffles. Her gown had short sleeves and she wore matching mitts. She carried salmon pink gladioli with blue delphinium bound with a blue bow. All of the attendants wore headpieces of flowers touched with silver and veiling to match their gowns. The bride's shoes were a pastel blue dress and hat with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua dress with fuchsia accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Edward Gardner was best man for his brother, Martin Friedman and Rudy Brodsky were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Roseland for about 50 guests. Decorations were in pink and blue with flowers on the tables and a four tier wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner left for a wedding trip to New York city. For traveling the bride chose to wear a black and white printed jersey dress with white accessories, fuchsia top coat and corsage of pink roses. They will make their home at 25 Murphy street.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Kingston High School. Mrs. Gardner is employed at F. Jacobson and Sons and Mr. Gardner at the Ulster Provisioners Warehouse.

Van Voorhis-Rogers Nuptials Solemnized Saturday Afternoon

The First Dutch Reformed Church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Eleanor Rae Rogers, 132 St. James street, West Saugerties, to William Edward Van Voorhis, son of Frederick S. Van Voorhis, Sr., 160 Main street, Saturday at 2:30 p. m. The Rev. Arthur E. Oudemool, pastor, and the Rev. Eugene Duryee, pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church of Cornwall, former pastor at the bride's home church in Blue Mountain, performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Raymond H. Rignall was organist. Among her selections were: Nocturne, Chopin; Liebestraume, Liszt; Ich Liebe Dich, Grieg; Prelude to the Third Act of Lohengrin, Wagner; Clair de Lune, Debussy; Songs by Mother Taught Me, Dvorak; When Thou Art Near, Bach; and the traditional marches. During the ceremony she played "I Love You Truly," Richard Keator, Jr., soloist sang, "Because," D'Hardelot; and "The Lord's Prayer," Malotte. The church was decorated with palms, white gladioli and white taper candles.

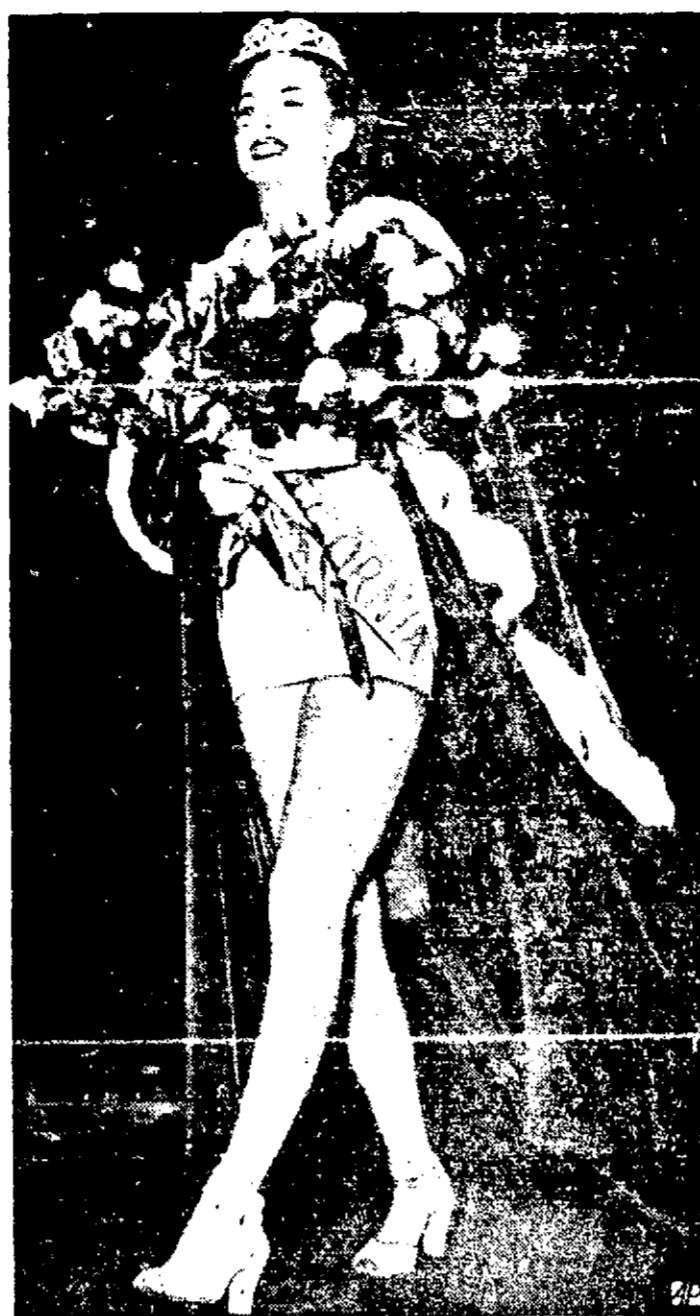

Mr. Rogers gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white satin gown with entrain made with sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil of imported lace was applied with satin. She carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath.

Miss Marion Rogers of West Saugerties, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a chartreuse faille gown and carried a large nosegay of American Beauty roses. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Grant E. Benjamin, West Saugerties, another sister; Mrs. Harold Bell, Miss Margaret Osterhoudt, Miss Olive Herdman, of this city. They wore American Beauty faille gowns and carried large nosegays of yellow roses. All of the attendants wore headpieces of rosebuds to match their bouquets. Hannah Jane Carn, as flower girl, was dressed in white net with white rosebud headpiece and carried a miniature nosegay of the same flowers.

Frederick S. Van Voorhis, Jr., of Saranac Lake was best man for his brother. Ushers were John Overbagh, John Carnright, Jacob C. Rogers, brother of the bride, Grant Earl Benjamin, West Saugerties and William Warren Overbagh, Saugerties.

After the ceremony, the wedding party received about 100 guests at a reception in the Governor Clinton Hotel. Decorations were palms, at the fireplace with white gladioli and white taper candles, as well as other flowers arranged about the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Van Voorhis left for a wedding trip to Canada. For traveling the bride chose an ice blue gabardine suit with dark red accessories, white blouse and corsage of white roses.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Saugerties High School. Mr. Van Voorhis served in the Naval Air Forces with the composite squadron three of the Pacific fleet for three years and was discharged in December. He is attending the University of Maine and they will make their home in an apartment on the campus.

K. H. S. Senior Escorts Miss America

A senior in Kingston High School, Miss Kathleen Barbara Garrod, was an escort for "Miss California," (pictured), chosen Miss America of 1946 at the Atlantic City, N. J., beauty pageant last week. Miss California is Marilyn Buford, 21-years-old.

Miss Garrod's sister, Miss Patricia Garrod, a graduate of Kingston High School, also participated in the pageant parade on the float representing Ventnor City, N. J. During the summer both girls have been staying with their grandmother who is McNeil Parrish, artist. They have been studying in art school and a private professional modeling school in Atlantic City. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. McNeil Garrod, 3 Cedar street. (AP Wirephoto)

HELD IN KIDNAPING

Mildred Louise Everett, 22, folds her arms in Terre Haute, Ind., police headquarters where she was taken into custody on a charge of kidnaping Madeline (Toby) Tobias, three-year-old daughter of a Kansas City, Mo., couple. (AP Wirephoto)

Madeline Tobia Is Home; Father Plans Prosecution

Kansas City, Sept. 10 (P)—Friendly three-year-old Madeline (Toby) Tobias is home today, extremely tired and covered with insect bites but otherwise none the worse for her exciting experience with a hitch-hiking maid, who disappeared with her five days ago.

A rousing welcome awaited curly haired, brown-eyed Toby upon her arrival here last night in a chartered plane with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Tobias, to whom she had been returned earlier in the day at Terre Haute, Ind., where police found her in a humble home awaiting adoption.

The maid, 22-year-old Mildred Louise Everett, was held by the F.B.I. at Terre Haute. She was picked up there soon after Madeline was found. A federal kidnaping charge here awaits the former inmate of the Ohio Girls' Industrial School, who told Terre Haute police she "loved the little girl and wanted her for my own."

Toby's father, an overseas veteran and now a salesman for a small loan company, said he would prosecute "to the limit" the maid, who disappeared with the Tobias' only child three days after he had picked her up on a street as a hitch-hiker, and hired her as a housekeeper because his wife was ill. Tiny Toby was too tired to take in much of the party at her modest home, celebrating her return. Her mother bathed her and treated her numerous chigger and mosquito bites before putting her to bed.

A few minutes later Toby was asleep. Her 24-year-old mother said she had been too tired to say her usual prayers.

W.C.T.U. Convention

On September 19, the W.C.T.U. of Ulster county plan to go to Ellenville for the 66th annual convention. The County President Mrs. F. G. Carpenter will conduct both morning and afternoon sessions.

Brandt-Ferraro Nuptials Solemnized In Trinity Church

Miss Janey Ferraro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Ferraro, Glasco, became the bride of Robert Brandt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brandt, 119 Hunter

Lutheran Church, The Rev. Frank L. Gollnick, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony.

Miss Lucinda Merritt was organist, and Anthony J. Messina as soloist sang "O Promise Me." The altar was decorated with white gladioli.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a bridal gown of white satin and chiffon designed with long sleeves, sweetheart neckline, and long train. She wore a fingertip veil and carried white gladioli.

Miss Mary Fabian, cousin of the bride, of Glasco as maid of honor wore an aqua gown and carried yellow gladioli. The bridesmaids were the Misses Joan Brandt, nieces of the bridegroom; Gloria Koepfen, cousin of the bridegroom; and Louise Ferraro, cousin of the bride. Miss Joan Brandt and Miss Ferraro wore blue gowns and carried pink gladioli bound with pink ribbon. The bride's mother wore a blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress with fuchsia print bodice and black skirt, black accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Henry Saulpaugh acted as best man. Ushers were Salvatore Ferraro, brother of the bride, Dominick Petramale, cousin of the bride of Glasco; Charles Koepfen, cousin of the bridegroom, and Arthur Hansen of this city.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Kozy Tavern with decorations in yellow, green and white. Brandt left for a wedding trip to New York. For going-away, the bride chose a powder blue suit with white top coat and navy blue accessories. They will make their home at 119 Hunter street.

The bride was graduated from the Glasco Union Free School and attended Saugerties High School. Mr. Brandt was graduated from No. 2 School and served in the navy two years. He was discharged as fireman first class in February.

Shaw's Age His Goal
Jacinto Benavente, leading Spanish dramatist, now 80, and a Nobel prize winner, said in Madrid that he hopes to live many years yet. "Among other reasons for this is my national pride," he explained. "Bernard Shaw is now past 80 and though I do not compare myself with him on a literary basis, nevertheless, I feel obliged to live as long as he has, in order to show that Spaniards can hold their own."

Burke Says Maroons Are Still Weak in Kicking Department

K.H.S. Candidates Start Second Week Of Gridiron Drills

Aerial Offensive Smoothing Out at Daily Practices: First Game at Stadium September 20

Baseball weather greeted Coach Will Burke and his Kingston High School gridder football hopefuls at municipal stadium, Monday afternoon as the gridgers started on their second week of pre-season training.

Burke, the likeable mentor from Highland, who replaces Coach Pete Hatch as the new Maroon pilot, got his first look at the local gridgers. Labor Day afternoon, when nearly 100 players worked out in back of the high school.

Since the start of school the entire squad of candidates has moved up to municipal stadium, Monday afternoon Coach Burke divided his attention with the varsity backs while Russ Cunningham of Pleasantville worked with the Maroon linemen. Al Gruner, last year's coach at Cornwall and Johnny Mahalic, formerly of Temple University, scrutinized the play of the young players.

First Game Next Week

With just seven more days of actual training left, Coach Burke has a big job ahead of him before the Maroon and White gladiators open the 1946 season against Haverstraw at municipal stadium Friday night, September 20.

"The team as a whole is shaping up pretty well," Burke stated Monday, "but there's still plenty of work to be done before the boys are ready to go into battle with Haverstraw." When asked to name a very tentative lineup of his line any backs, Burke said "Right now it's impossible to name any. Some of the boys look pretty good at their positions but in other cases a few unknowns are beginning to perform well and may knock their way into a starting berth yet."

Kingston's first scrimmage was held Monday afternoon following a long period of calisthenics. More actual playing conditions will be carried on for the rest of the week.

After one week of training the Maroon team is still sorely in need of a good kicker as Coach Burke attested. "Our main weakness," he said, "is the punting department. When we first started both the kicking and passing departments were woefully weak but now the aerial phase is coming along nicely."

Burke's main attention yesterday was devoted to both passing and kicking. He had two groups of varsity material working on the aerials and boots. He plans to devote as much time as possible to these in order to get them at their best by game time next week.

In one of the groups Monday Big Ed Weaver and Bill Kintso were under the close watch of Burke as they divided kicking duties. Weaver, who is no stranger to K.H.S. athletic circles for his baseball and basketball abilities, is listed as an end for the Maroon varsity. Present plans call for him to drop back on kick formations. Another promising candidate was Kintso who got off some good punts.

No Serious Injuries

No serious injuries have cropped up so far in the first week of practice. Bill Crosby, left-handed passer, has a wrenched knee and was forced to take it easy Monday while a few others have minor ailments which haven't hampered their attending practice sessions.

Squad Is Large

Hershey, Pa., Sept. 10 (AP)—Sixty-three University of Pennsylvania football candidates—the largest squad in Coach George Munger's nine years at Penn—turned out today for the first full day's grid practice.

Newburgh Faces Loss of Grid Coach as Bill Elder Resigns

Popular N.F.A. Mentor at School Since '35; Seeks New Post at Mt. Vernon High

The third High school in DUSO League football circles appeared to be assured of a new gridiron coach for the 1946 fall season today with the announcement that Coach Bill Elder of Newburgh had filed his resignation at N.F.A. in order to accept a position as varsity football coach at Mt. Vernon High School in Westchester county.

If Elder's resignation is accepted, and it is believed that it will, Newburgh will become the third school in the DUSO League to take the field with a new mentor. Kingston became the first when Coach Will Burke of Highland was signed to pilot the Maroon and White gridgers. Next in line was Ed Rodiek of Middletown who replaced Dan Funch, Middle coach for the last several years.

The loss of Elder will not only mean the resignation of Academy but other Hudson Valley schools and associates as well. Coach Elder has been one of the most successful football coaches in the Hudson Valley and he had played a leading part in promoting inter-scholastic athletics both in the New York State and National Public High School Athletic Associations.

Elder took over the reins from C. Everett Stevens back in 1935 when the latter stepped to the sidelines. He came to Newburgh in 1930 to become junior varsity football coach. During 1931 and 1932 he coached javay basketball and produced successful teams in both years.

Prior to his post in Newburgh Elder prepared for future work at California High School and Pennsylvania Teacher's College in Pennsylvania where he excelled in football, basketball, and baseball for three years.

Since relieving Stevens as boss at N.F.A. Elder has been very successful. He has retired two Hamilton Fish Trophies and has gained legs on the third.

Newburgh will open its 1946 football season in a game with Schenectady September 21.

SCOREBOARD

(By The Associated Press)

The do or die stage for the St. Louis Cardinals and the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League pennant race gets underway today with the Red Birds beginning a 13-game road trip at Philadelphia while the Dodgers entertain the Cincinnati Reds.

The American League's eastern clubs take their last journey through the west with the pace-setting Boston Red Sox needing only to defeat the Detroit Tigers today to clinch their first pennant since 1918.

Leading the Dodgers by two games, the Cards will play the Phils twice and then invade Flatbush for a three-game series.

With the exception of three games, the remainder of their 17 games at home. The Cards have only five games left to play at Sportsman's Park in St. Louis.

Brooklyn hurling, paced by rookie Joe Hatten and veteran Kirby Higbe, and the return to form of Pete Reiser, have increased the Brooks' confidence in their chances of overhauling the Red Birds.

In their last four games, Brooklyn pitchers have gone the distance. Only once previously this season have Dodger hurlers gone the route four straight times.

Red Birds Fall Off

The Red Bird pitching staff has fallen off somewhat, with Howie Pollet and Murry Dickson hit exceptionally hard in their last outings. Pollet, winner of 18 games, has been hit. The Red Bird hitters are enjoying some of their biggest days of the season at the plate. Enos (Country) Slaughter has taken a commanding lead in the run-batted-in department, and Stan Musial continued to pace the league in batting.

In the only game in either league yesterday, the Philadelphia Phillies nosed out the New York Giants, 5-4 under the lights at Philadelphia.

Charley Gilbert broke up the game in the ninth by singling in Andy Seminick from second. Del Ennis clouted a three-run first inning homer off rookie Sheldon Jones to send the Phils off to a 3-0 lead. The Phils entered the ninth leading 4-1, but the Giants staged a scoring spree in which pinch-hitter Ernie Lombardi made a homerun.

Charles Schaefer was hit for the Phils while Woody Abernathy and Gene Thompson followed Jones to the hill for the Giants.

Bruins Pummel Fullers, 11-0 Behind Lowe's Four-Hitter

Larkin and Goumas Slam Homers for Winners; Ten Broeck Bashes Out Three Hits

The Texas Lunch Bruins waited until Monday night at Block Park by the score of 11 to 0 in a regular City League Softball contest. Ed Lowe pitched the shut-out and gave up only four hits.

Culver Ten Broeck led the hitters with a double and two singles. Roe, Owen Ten Broeck, Larkin and Weishaupt each blasted out two apiece while Larkin and Goumas slammed homers. Frank Hornbeck had a triple for Fullers while Ed Marks collected a two-bagger.

The Bruins got four in the first frame on hits by Roe, O. Ten Broeck, Crosby, a fielder's choice and Babe Larkin's mighty homer. Fullers came back in the third and threatened to score when Hornbeck tripled. Johnny Rowland asked to center. Frank Roe gloved the ball and threw quickly to the plate to nab Hornbeck who attempted to come in after the catch.

Fullers put on another threat in the fifth when runners were on second and third and two outs. Hornbeck ended the uprising with a pop to Lowe.

The Bruins added six to the fifth on Roe's double, a grounder to first, Crosby's bunt, a single by Geisler and doubles by Culver Ten Broeck and Larkin. A triple by Weishaupt and Goumas' homer drove the leftfield foul line added in the scoring.

The winners pushed over the final run in the sixth on a walk to Roe, an infield out and Crosby's hoist to right driving in Roe.

Everitt Equals 68 Shot by Memphis Golfing Champion

Springfield, N. J., Sept. 10 (AP)—An army dentist and a Philadelphia broker who got in as an alternate share the driver's seat today as the 46th Annual National Amateur Golf Championship spun the turn into the last half of its qualifying play.

For Howard Everitt of the Manufacturers club of Philadelphia the 68 he fired on the Baltusrol Golf Club's 6,686-yard lower course yesterday was a particularly bright spot in his links career and it was just as happy an occasion for Woody Platt of Philadelphia, who withdrew from the tourney to give Everitt his chance.

Platt decided that at 49 he should give a younger player an opportunity, and that was all Everitt, 30-year-old Pennsylvania state amateur king, needed.

He got as hot as the weather yesterday to post his four-under-par tally that put him on a level with Capt. Carry Middlecoff, North and South champ from Memphis, Tenn., and a heavy pre-tourney favorite, for the first 18 holes of the medal competition.

Middlecoff was one of the early starters and as the play was drawing to a close it looked like his 34-34 was going to be the best turned in by the 149 starters in this revival of the big tourney for amateurs, last run in 1941.

Had Other Ideas

But Everitt had other ideas and after an outgoing 34 he continued his pace to equal the tally of the dentist from the staff of Oliver General Hospital in Augusta, Ga.

They were just a stroke ahead of Skee Riegel, trans-Mississippi champion from Glendale, Calif., who had a 33 on the incoming nine to put him right up close to the head of the pack.

Tom Stephenson of Kansas City and Smiley L. Quick, public links titlist from Inglewood, Calif., grabbed off 70's and Dick Chapman from Mamaroneck, N. Y., was a stroke back of them.

Ten others were all even at par totals including Frank (Muscles) Strahan, western amateur champion from Toledo, O., Ray Billows, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., twice a runner-up in the nationals; Pipper Jr., San Jose, Calif.; Bill Campbell, Huntington, W. Va.; Maurice J. McCarthy, Jr., Cincinnati; John Sergio, Wat-chung, N. J.; Earl Christiansen, Miami, Fla.; Arnold Blum, Mingham, Ga., and Ted Adams, Hingham, Mass., were the others at 72.

Defending Champion Marvin (Bud) Ward of Spokane, Wash., trailed with a 75. Willie Turnesa, 1938 champ, turned in a 73 and Johnny Goodman, winner in 1937, scored 74.

May Abandon Swim

Dover, England, Sept. 10 (AP)—Unless rough water and high winds subside within the next ten days, George Berroeta plans to abandon his attempt to swim the Channel this year, he said today. Berroeta canceled his second attempt early today as he headed for the French coast in a launch to start the swim from Cape Gris Nez to Dover. Berroeta last month was forced to turn back on his initial attempt when almost in sight of the Dover Cliffs.

BOWLING

Independent League

The Independent Bowling League started its 1946-47 season at the Central Recreation alleys Monday night.

Vogels and Stone Ridge opened the new kegling season with complete strings of three victories while Coles and Callanans posted double triumphs.

Don Vogel and Charlie Grunerwald paced Vogels with a 602 triple and 228 single respectively to three wins over Martins, J. Roe's 518 series was high for the losers.

Stone Ridge, with George Dawkins slugging a 550 triple, got off to a good start by whipping Wilbers in three straight decisions. Dawkins posted 197, 162 and 191 for his high three-throw. Sary Hayes of the losers came through with the high single mark of the match with 221.

Coles won two from Jumps with Milt Cole posting 193 and 300. Chuck Davis registered high triple of the match with 519.

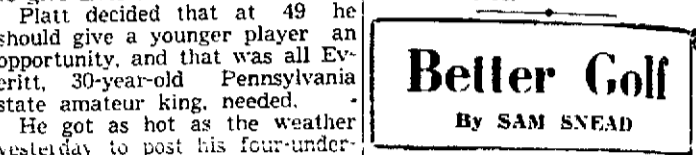

The final match found Callanans winning a pair from Bechers, J. Trombley's 509 triple was high while McConnell hit a 192 single for the losers.

Better Golf

By SAM SNEAD

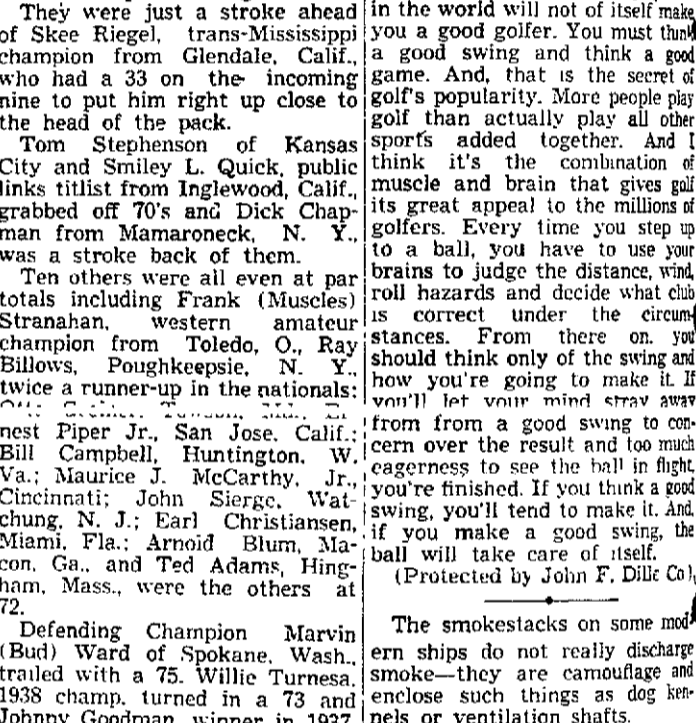

2. The finest physical equipment in the world will not of itself make you a good golfer. You must have a good swing and think a good game. And, that is the secret of golf's popularity. More people play golf than actually play all other sports added together. And I think it's the combination of muscle and brain that gives golf its great appeal to the millions of golfers. Every time you step up to a ball, you have to use your brains to judge the distance, wind, roll hazards and decide what club is correct under the circumstances. From there on, you should think only of the swing and how you're going to make it. If you'll let your mind stray away from a good swing to concern over the result and too much eagerness to see the ball in flight, you're finished. If you think a good swing, you'll tend to make it. And, if you make a good swing, the ball will take care of itself.

Winners Stage Big Rally to Capture Decision

The Berardi Oilers staged a rally to defeat the Jacobson Crushers by the score of 12 to 6 at Haddock Park Monday night.

Trading 6 to 1 going into the fifth the winners finally found the game by scoring six runs. Vince Noble and Johnny McCordie each knocked out homers for the Oilers. Lewis with three for four and Spada with two for four paced the attack for the Oilers.

Studer Wins First In Caber Tossing

Local Youth Defeats Former Champ

Carl J. Studer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Studer, Port Ewen, won first place in tossing the caber at the Scotch games for the meet of Clan MacRae, 158, in Schenectady Saturday.

Studer competed against the former champion in a meet held at Turner Park and received an important tie for winning. It was his second first place victory this summer. He plans to enter the biggest meet in Auburn next summer.

Navy Is Way Off Hamilton Declares

Annapolis, Md., Sept. 10 (AP)—They're not crying in their soup at the Naval Academy these days over football prospects, but—says Capt. Tom Hamilton—"anybody that gives us a buildup this fall is way off base."

The Navy head coach and his squad of 88 players had just returned from an unprecedented two-week training camp at Martha's Vineyard, Mass., and ran head-on into sweltering weather for their first at-home workouts. Perhaps the July-in-September heat will take out some of the minor bruises and kinks incurred up north; it certainly won't chill the air of enthusiasm around Old Cranial.

Jamaica Track Meet Generates Much Interest

Kingston, Jamaica, Sept. 10 (AP)—A three-day international track and field meet between American and Jamaican stars has spurred the Jamaican government's interest in the forthcoming Pan-American Olympics.

In formally closing the meet, Alexander Bustamante, head of the political government, promised to provide funds to hire an American athletic coach to prepare the island team for the Pan-American meet.

Herb McKenley, University of Illinois sprinter from Jamaica who holds the quarter-mile record, won the 440 in 48.2 seconds in the final day's events yesterday, postponed from Saturday because of rain.

Tommy Quinn of the New York Athletic Club finished the series undefeated by taking the mile handicap easily after spotting his Jamaican opponents 50 yards. Quinn's time was 4:33.3.

Frank Martin of New York University won the two-mile run in 10:08.4, giving the local competitors as much as 200 yards.

Duties Are Easier

Philadelphia, Sept. 10 (AP)—Ex-Grids who are turning out for this season's grid teams are making the duties of a football coach today a lot easier, says Temple University Coach Ray Morrison.

The veterans, says the Temple grid master, developed the spirit to win while in service and imbue young players with the same spirit. That takes some of the work off the shoulders of the coach, Morrison explained.

Soreer Strike Impends

London, Sept. 10 (AP)—Ministry of Labor officials were scheduled to confer today with President W. C. Cuff of the English Football League in an effort to avert a threatened strike by professional soccer players.

The government threatened to enforce its decision to strike to enforce its decision to raise in the maximum wage from ten pounds ($40) a week to twelve pounds ($48).

Irene Plarido Badly Hurt When Struck by Truck

Young Woman Walking Along 9-W at Circle in Highland When Hit by Truck

Irene Plarido, 18, who is believed to have escaped from a mental institution at Pittsford, Mass., a few days ago, was struck by a truck and badly injured early this morning as she was walking along Route 9-W about three quarters of a mile south of the Mid-Hudson bridge circle at Highland.

Taken to Vassar Hospital, Poughkeepsie, she was found to be suffering from fractures of both legs and possible internal injuries. State Trooper E. P. Johnson of the Highland barracks made an investigation.

About 4:45 o'clock this morning during a heavy fog, a Diamond T tractor and trailer of Carl W. Paul of Madison, driven by Jack Edwards, 27, of Madison, N. Y., was proceeding north. Paul said he was unable to see the girl who was walking northerly with traffic on the concrete strip. He did not see her until too late to avoid striking her. No arrest was made.

At the time of the accident the injured girl was accompanied by two soldiers from Green Haven, N. Y., who were about 15 feet behind her. The investigation disclosed that the girl was proceeding northerly on the right of the road in violation of the pedestrian law which requires pedestrians to face traffic, the troopers learned.

With the girl was William H. Cordell and Emil L. Kuester, both privates in the army, stationed in Green Haven, N. Y., who were on their way to Poughkeepsie.

Proposals Withdrawn On Delineation of Zone

By A. L. GOLDBERG

Paris, Sept. 10 (AP)—The Peace Conference Commission on Italian political and territorial questions decided today to set up an eight-nation sub-committee to draft a statute for the Free City of Trieste.

At the same time James C. Dunn, U. S. assistant secretary of state, withdrew three American proposals for a detailed delineation of the international zone and Italian-Yugoslav boundaries.

The American and French explanations of the American action differed. Dunn was quoted as saying the proposals were withdrawn because they never had been discussed by the Foreign Ministers Council. The proposals were only advanced, he said, because there was no detailed delineation of the French line to which the council agreed. Now the French have drawn up a detailed proposal and, rather than create confusion by having two proposals emanating from members of the four-power Foreign Ministers Council, the United States decided to withdraw its plan, Dunn was quoted.

A French source, however, said the American proposals were withdrawn because of adamant opposition from the Russians, who would not budge from their view that they had given their approval in the council to the French and not the American line.

The detailed American line differed from the French at two points, near Gorizia north of Trieste, and near Monfalcone, west of Trieste. French informants said the detailed French line ran on the eastern outskirts of Gorizia and even cut off some of the suburbs from Italy. The American line was farther east and included all the suburbs and some of the surrounding territory in the Italian segment, the French source said.

A similar difference existed at Monfalcone. Lief Egeland of South Africa, whose proposal to establish a sub-committee to draft a Trieste constitution was adopted, said the group should finish its work by October 5.

Tel Aviv Curfew Is Lifted After 16 Hours

Jerusalem, Sept. 10 (AP)—The curfew at Tel Aviv was lifted late today after the city's 200,000 Jewish residents had been under house arrest for 16 hours following a wave of terrorism in which three persons were killed, a number of others injured and heavy property damage caused.

Police and soldiers searched and questioned the Jewish residents during the curfew but there was no immediate report of arrests or discoveries.

The military continued to cord off nearby Ramat Gan, a Jewish town of 5,000, which has been under curfew and a comb out since dawn.

Delhi-Andes Road Will Be Improved

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—The State Public Works Department today awarded a $1,408,141 contract to John Arbro, Inc., Poughkeepsie, for reconstruction of 12.86 miles of Route 28 between Delhi and Andes in Delaware county.

Construction of four bridges and elimination of several sharp curves are part of the project, calling for a 22-foot bituminous macadam pavement.

The project, scheduled for completion by August 1, 1947, is the longest piece of complete highway construction awarded since the end of the war, the department said.

U.N. Council Is Ready to Vote On Soviet Charges

Lake Success, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—The United Nations Security Council was ready for a showdown today on the Soviet Ukraine's charges against Greece, with a vote due on Australia's flat demand that the complaint be thrown out of court.

The United States has rejected the Ukraine's contention that Greece was preparing for aggression against peace in the Balkans, but has not stated which way she will vote on the Australian motion.

Today's meeting was set for 3 p. m. (E.D.T.) when the council hurriedly adjourned last night after hearing the surprise statements that forced the whole issue near a vote.

From comments by delegates so far, it was noted that Australia already had the possibility of three supporting votes—Great Britain, the Netherlands and possibly the United States actually would vote to kill the complaint.

Paul Hasluck, returning to the leading role Australia played in council affairs when Dr. Herbert V. Evatt was sitting, lashed out at the Ukraine's charges as "unsubstantiated" and said the prestige of the council would be damaged should it act on such a case.

Will Plan Legion Ball at Meeting Slated for Tonight

A meeting of the American Legion ball committee and all other Legion members who are interested in the success of the annual Armistice Day ball, has been called for this evening at 8 o'clock at the Legion Home by General Chairman Jacob H. Tremper.

The meeting will be for the purpose of discussing general plans and for the offering of suggestions by any members of the Legion who may have some plan for the success of the ball.

Mr. Tremper desires that the membership of the Legion feels it has a part in the plan and that the ball is not to be put on by any one small group and for this reason he asks that any member attend the meeting this evening and offer any suggestion he may have.

William Rodell, who has had wide experience in the matter of entertainment and in promoting former Legion balls, will serve as advisory counselor to the general chairman.

Eight Kingstonians Sign for College

Would Attend Columbia Off-Campus Classes

Eight prospective students from Kingston are among the 440 candidates who have applied for admission to the off-campus college of Columbia University which will start classes in the high school in Middletown between October 1 and 15, according to Carl V. Warren, superintendent of schools in Middletown.

Middletown had about 170 enrollees. Other towns and their enrollees included: Kingston, eight; Highland, four; Highland Falls, one; Montgomery, eight; Washingtonville, three; Walden, six; Saugerties, five; Ellenville, six; Pine Bush, five; Highgate Falls, four; Poughkeepsie, one; Cornwall, one; Walkkill, two; Cornwall-on-Hudson, three.

Of the 440 enrolled at the school, about 120 have applied for the Liberal Arts course; 90 to 100 for Business Administration; 80 to 90 for Engineering; 30 for Pre-Medicine and Pre-Dentistry; 11 for Law and a few for teaching.

Japanese Seamen Quit 681 Vessels

Port and Coastal Workers Join in Sympathy Strike

Tokyo, Sept. 10 (AP)—The strike committee of the Japan Seamen's Union today ordered a walkout of its 54,000 members and tonight reported 681 vessels were tied up. The strike was effective at noon.

Kyodo News Agency said seamen walked off 65 ships at Yokohama and two at Hakodate. Those aboard two LSTs at Nagoya were awaiting developments.

Biggest tie-up, Kyodo said, was at Kyushu's Wakamatsu port, where 630 vessels were reported struck.

Kyodo said local chapters appeared to be divided: Some support the strike, some oppose it and others are undecided.

Meanwhile the Japan Port Workers Union and the Japan Coastal Shipping Union, with 30,000 members each, decided upon a sympathy strike. Coastal shipping handles virtually all coal shipments, vital to factories throughout Japan.

Union committee chiefs said they are demanding a 100 per cent wage increase and are opposing an association proposal to discharge approximately 80 per cent of the seamen in a readjustment program. The seamen also demand that ship owners pay the sailors income taxes.

Republican Leader Hits Democrats for Communist Slant

New York, Sept. 10 (AP)—Alger B. Chapman, Republican state campaign manager, said today that "in a desperate bid for Communist votes, the Democrat high command has deliberately sold out its party and surrendered it to domination of Left Wing elements."

Referring to the Communist party's move yesterday in filing declarations for its candidates for all state offices, Chapman said in a statement:

"By this action, the ranks of the A.L.P.-P.A.C. Democratic combine becomes complete. And the brazen 'power politics' deal of the high command of the opposition also becomes apparent."

In filing the declarations in Albany, Chapman said the move was taken because "a common electoral front with the Democrats is required to meet the reactionary Republican Dewey slate."

Chapman's statement continued: "Despite self-serving repudiations by some Democrat spokesmen, the deal has been made and will be kept."

"The official Communist party release, announcing the withdrawal of all of their candidates, unwittingly exposed this unholy alliance."

The G.O.P. campaign manager said he believed "large numbers of regular Democrats will resent this Republican deal and will join with Republicans in the polls."

Passengers Remain Aboard Strikebound Steamship

New York, Sept. 10 (AP)—Two hundred passengers continued "bound to nowhere" cruise aboard the steamer Panama today as the liner went into its fifth day of being land bound by the maritime strike.

Since last Friday the passengers, described by the Panama Line as U. S. government employees bound for new posts in Latin America, have been aboard the vessel together with most members of the C.I.O. National Maritime Union crew.

Pickets of the A.F.L. Seafarers' International Union allowed the passengers to go aboard, but the N.M.U. refused to sail the ship because of its agreement with the strikers.

The passengers have remained aboard the ship because of fear that if they come ashore they could not pass the picket lines again.

House Warming Will Be Held at Manse

This evening a house warming will be tendered the Rev. and Mrs. Osterhout Phillips at the manse of the Ponckhockie Congregational Church on Abruy street, by the members of the congregation and friends of the church.

The Rev. Mr. Phillips recently accepted the call extended to him to become full time pastor of the church, and he and his family are now making their home in the manse of the church.

An interesting program has been arranged for this evening, and a large attendance is expected.

Hughes Files to Challenge Revocation of 'The Outlaw'

Culver City, Sept. 10 (AP)—Howard Hughes, still bearing the scars of his fiery crash in an experimental plane July 7, today took off in a converted B-23 transport for New York "to challenge the revocation of the seal of approval" announced Sunday by the motion picture producers association for his movie "The Outlaw."

Piloting the twin-engine craft himself, Hughes was accompanied only by a mechanic, Earl Martyn, and a passenger, John Slesinger.

The movie industry censorship office's announcement said Hughes failed to submit to the association all advertising and publicity material used in exploiting "The Outlaw," and that he used material not approved by the association.

Hughes retorted, "the censors may not like 'The Outlaw,' but the public does."

Vacancies Exist On 4 Town Tickets

Will Be Filled at General Election in November

In four towns of the county there exist vacancies on the town ticket which will be filled at the general election in November. Those elected to these offices will serve out the unexpired terms of their predecessors who in each instance resigned since elected to office.

The vacancies exist in the towns of Shandaken, Kingston, Shawangunk and Hardenburgh.

On the Republican ticket there have been regular designations and the candidates names have been filed with the Board of Elections, the final date for filing having been on September 6. No Democratic designations have been made.

In the town of Shandaken Fred A. Decker of Allaben has been designated for Justice of the Peace for the full term.

In Kingston town Frederick W. Beecher of Route 2, Kingston, received the party designation for Justice of the Peace for the full term.

In Hardenburgh Orson S. Haynes, former supervisor, has received the designation of Justice of the Peace.

In the town of Shawangunk there are two vacancies, both for assessors. Herbert S. Dubois of Walkkill, R.D., was designated for the three year term and David Brundage of Walkkill, R.D. for the one year term.

Invasion Keeps Up by Britishers With No Houses

Ministry of Works Will Take Action Against Squatters; Society Resents Them

London, Sept. 10 (AP)—The Ministry of Works announced today that legal action would be taken to regain possession of the Duchess of Bedford house, seven-story apartment building occupied Sunday by squatters.

The invasion of private houses and apartments continued to grow, however, as Communist-led squatters settled in a score of private dwellings and buildings. The movement spread to Ealing, middle class western suburb where the Communist party announced four families totaling 20 adults and children moved into two houses.

An angry British brigadier general found three families, one with eight children, had taken possession of the $24,000 house he had just bought in exclusive Phillimore Gardens. He demanded his house back and the squatters' "local government" committee went into conference to decide whether to vacate.

The Ministry of Works said no further announcement would be made concerning the action on the Duchess of Bedford house. The government had requisitioned the house and it was in process of being turned back to its owners, the Prudential Assurance Company, when the uninvited tenants moved in.

Dig in to Stay

The squatters dug in for a long stay in their luxurious dwellings, despite the threat of drastic government action and the bitter disapproval of neighbors.

"Whatever happens now we will stick firm," said E. S. Henderson, secretary of the Hammersmith Communist party and a leader of the three-day, Communist-sponsored invasion of a score of vacant apartment buildings and upper class houses by families from blitzed low-rent district.

"Bring Down the Tone" While the government prepared to act on grounds that private property had been seized, residents of the dignified, prosperous sections invaded complained that the squatters "bring down the tone of the neighborhood."

Summing up this resentment in two words, a well-dressed woman pointed to a washing that dangled from a line outside stately Duchess of Bedford house, largest of the commandeered buildings, and said in tones of despair: "Look-nappies." (Diapers).

All the squatters were cautioned by their leaders, who went scouting for new premises to take over, to do no damage to the "borrowed" lodgings, to live quietly and to sit tight.

Health Minister Aneurin Bevan refused to see a Communist delegation appointed to call on him and present the party's demand that scores of vacant houses be used for working people's homes rather than redecorated for well-off tenants.

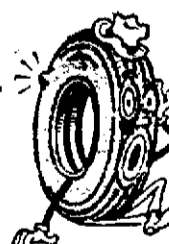

Bevan's refusal was "in line with cabinet policy," a department spokesman said.

The Communist Daily Worker commented, meanwhile: "Whoever the owners of the empty houses may be is beside the point. The houses are needed to alleviate a great and growing human problem and should be brought under public control without delay."

Prime Minister Attlee was expected to receive reports on the situation from government law officers today and then to confer with the cabinet ministers concerned to decide what action to take.

J., stand beside the specially-constructed land cruiser which will convey Dr. Sealey on a tour of Mexico. Equipped to sleep eight persons, the cruiser has a main salon, a tiled bathroom, a rear sitting room-studio and a galley equipped with a sink, refrigerator and gas range. The seven-ton machine is 30 feet long, can go 75 miles per hour.

The World Today

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Question: Does the world still have religious faith?

Answer: Thousands of soldiers in Camp Lee, Va., knelt in the post's ten chapels Sunday and prayed for Divine aid for seven-year-old Nancy Henderson of Burlington, Vermont, whose doctors have pronounced her incurably ill from brain tumor. Nancy is the daughter of Master Sergeant Ralph W. Henderson.

Over in England people throughout the country at the week-end prayed for better weather which would permit harvesters to begin the salvage of grain from rain-sodden fields.

Meantime in Philadelphia Britain's Archbishop of Canterbury was telling the national convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Episcopal lay organization, that world brotherhood and peace never will be attained apart from Christianity.

So there is faith—and far more than could be indicated in these three instances. However, there has developed a threat to religion which was brought out in the Philadelphia convention by John Foster Dulles, alternate United States delegate to the United Nations and a prominent layman, who declared that "the Soviet Communist party challenges the supremacy of the so-called Christian world," and continued:

"Contrasting at home ten per cent of the human race, it offers leadership to a further 75 per cent constituting the overwhelming majority of Europe, Asia, Africa and South America. That challenge has had an initial success. In every part of the world there are influential groups which accept leadership from Moscow."

Word About Russia

The archbishop had a word about Russia also, saying in part: "We must convince Russia that, on our own principles, we do not want to impede her living in her own ideology. But we must convince her we do not want another ideology imposed where it has no welcome."

The significance of these statements of course rests in the fact that Communism is adamant in the doctrine that religion is the opiate of the masses and must be eliminated. Indeed, Communism is offered as a substitute for religion.

Now this is no contradiction of the circumstances that the Soviet government is permitting churches to conduct services in Russia. While churches are open, Communism never ceases its intensive campaign against religion, and an important part of this is carried on through youth movements which deal with the more pliable minds of childhood. You can't be a true Communist and believe in God at the same time.

But that isn't the whole story. Quite apart from Communism, untold thousands of people in Europe who came under the evil influence of Nazis are bogged down spiritually, morally and in morale, as I observed during my recent tour of the continent. Hitler deliberately corrupted all he could among his own people and the peoples of neighboring states who came under his control. He did this so that they would assist, or at least not resist, his diabolical schemes for the enslavement of conquered nations. That sounds like fiction, but it is all too true. And this host of wanderers constitutes one of the greatest problems of rehabilitation. As they are now, their position is all but hopeless. They are without guidance, and in due course they are going to be caught up by one of two faiths—Red Communism or Christianity. It depends on which gets there first with the greatest driving force.
